

Huda Abdulla awarded

Woman Leader in Banking and Finance Excellence Award for 2014

10, March 2014
Matthew Amlôt

Huda Abdulla, Executive Vice President and Head of the UAE Nationals Segment at First Gulf Bank (FGB), was awarded the 'Woman Leader in Banking and Finance Excellence Award' during the 14th Middle East Women Leaders Excellence Awards ceremony.

Huda Abdulla receives award from The wife of HRH Prince Alwaleed Bin Talal, Princess Ameerah Al-Taweel.

The event took place in the Burj Al Arab hotel in Dubai in the presence of leading individuals across various sectors, along with media representatives.

The award ceremony was held in attendance of Her Excellency Sheikha Bodour Bint Sultan Al Qasimi, Chairperson of Sharjah Investment and Development Authority "Shurooq" and Chairperson of Sharjah Ladies Club (SLC). It took place following yesterday's International Women's Day and coincides with the 17th Global Women Leaders Conference, which honours outstanding leadership skills and excellence in practice across all sectors.

Huda Abdulla has previously received the most "Distinguished Woman in the Banking & Finance Sector 2011" award from the Emirates Institute for Banking and Financial Studies.

The award was presented by H.H Dr. Sheikh Sultan bin Mohammed Al Qasimi, Supreme Council member and Ruler of Sharjah, during the 13th National Career Fair for Banking and Financial sectors at Sharjah Expo. She was also named the “UAE’s Second Most Powerful Arab Business Woman” in Forbes Middle East’s “Top 100 Most Powerful Arab Business Women in Listed Companies” ranking scheme in 2012.